Proof exceptional circumstances Student Financial Support Fund

- (Chronic) illness, disability, pregnancy: statement from a physician, psychologist or a midwife indicating the period in which the circumstances occurred.
- Exceptional family circumstances: written proof (for example divorce papers, obituary notice, medical statement).
- Organizational and administrative activities performed on behalf of the TU/e, including membership of the University Council, a program committee, department council or department board: statement from the chairman or secretary indicating the period in which the student fulfilled these activities.
- Program-related exceptional circumstances: clarification about the cause and the period of delay (for example agreements made with the program in order to limit the delay). Attach additional proof when applicable.
- Membership of a board of a student organization: statement from the chairman indicating the period in which the student fulfilled these activities.